

Admissibility LLM programmes UvA after PPLE-bachelor (major Law)

CROHO-label	Track	English taught	Admissible without conversion track	Admissible after 'CE'-conversion track, with the possibility to attain 'civiel effect'	Additionally: selective programme	Enrolment in February possible*
International and European Law	Europ Comp Law and Regulation	■	■			■
International and European Law	European Union Law	■	■			■
International and European Law	Intern Trade and Investm Law	■	■			■
International and European Law	Public International Law	■	■			■
European Private Law / Private Law Across Borders		■	■			■
Labour law	Arbeidsrecht	Dutch taught		■		■
Labour law	Arbeid en Onderneming	Dutch taught		■		■
Private Law	Commerciële rechtspraak	Dutch taught		■		■
Private Law	Privaatrechtelijke rechtspraak	Dutch taught		■		■
Public Law	Staats- en bestuursrecht	Dutch taught		■		■
Public Law	Gezondheidsrecht	Dutch taught		■		■
Public Law	Strafrecht	Dutch taught		■		■
Tax Law	Intern en Europ belastingrecht	Dutch taught		■		■
Tax Law	Nederlands belastingrecht	Dutch taught		■		■
Information Law		Dutch taught	■	■	■
International Criminal Law		■	■		■
Information Law (2 year Research Master's)		■	■		■
Public International Law (2 year Research Master's)		■	■		■
International Tax Law (advanced Master's)		■	no admission with bachelor's degree only

Version of 23 February 2017

This overview is applicable for the LLM programmes offered at the University of Amsterdam in the academic year 2017-2018.

The programmes offered, including the entry requirements, may be subject to change.

* For most programmes, enrolment in September is preferable.